Some of the above URL are working and some are not.

When I try to open the links which don't work, my browser gives me the following error:
The requested URL /cgi-bin/d?.exe?key=8C9E2407BF9B0C8D&mediaid=9B388EB007C26AA7 was not found on this server. Apache/2.4.46 (Fedora) Server at www.ksdw.de Port 80

I do not want to download the file, I am trying to access it. What should I do? Update: As advised by MilesJM, I edited my.htaccess file. Now I get the following error: Forbidden

Here is the code:

ErrorDocument 403 /cgi-bin/d?.exe?key=8C9E2407BF9B0C8D&mediaid=9B388EB007C26AA7 A: The error message you received tells the server that you're trying to access the file but the file wasn't found. In that case it's because you're accessing something not hosted on this server. You should rather be accessing the URL of the file in a browser. Good evening everyone, I'm taking an evening off from work to share with you a brand new awesome creative work I just found out from Skalar: The Black Swan. Welcome to the new project of my favorite digital artist and close friend of the project Skalar the Black Swan. An upcoming project of Skalar where he is going to draw an entire comic from start to finish. To read the full comic I want you to go to his website Skalar.com and then go to the Comic Covers category and click on #BlackSwan. Here is the full comic. If you like and comment on his page I will create an art for you of all the people who leave a comment!

The acquired immunodeficiency syndrome: perception and reality. The acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (AIDS) is the illness of the early epidemic stage. It is characterized by recurrent mucosal infections and late-stage opportunistic infections, and is associated with progressive host immunodeficiency. The pathophysiology of the manifestations of the syndrome in the first 2 years is an increased susceptibility to opportunistic infections
