It ran for 389 yards in a 34-30 victory over No. 10 West Virginia. It had 459 yards in an overtime victory at No. 8 Penn State. It had 614 in a 28-24 victory over No. 20 Wake Forest. This impressive performance was made even more remarkable by the fact that six of the team's nine backs are listed among the Top 25 rushers in the country, according to the Athlon Sports college football magazine. Maryland is ranked 11th by Athlon and the top scoring team in the country. Maryland's last Top 10 ranking came in 1988 when it was 11th. It must be a record to be ranked. No. 3 Nebraska has run for 4,643 yards and led the country with an average of 318 yards per game. No. 5 Ohio State has run for 4,417 yards, an average of 316 yards per game. No. 9 Ohio State, the Big 10's top rusher, has 4,533 yards. Top-ranked Oregon is first in the nation with 4,236 yards. However, with a 1-4 record, the Terrapins have been unable to make many of the most memorable records because of their lopsided defeats. They did make a breakthrough for themselves, though, by winning the Capital Athletic Conference. Maryland became the first in conference history to win 15 games. The Terrapins won 15 and finished second in the final Associated Press national poll. In every other conference in college football, a loss by one of the Top 15 teams results in the automatic loss of the top spot. However, since Maryland's
