The caption on the image says 'No animals had been harmed in the making of this photo' and noted they are home SICK PETS. The caption said, quote, "After being abandoned for months inside the little white house, Cody (bottom) and Play were eventually found and taken to a shelter. There, they received special treatment -- and eventually a forever home. "In the shelter, they received toys and treats, while Play enjoyed special cuddles from her favorite person, Cody. The shelter's staff even let the dogs bathe together before they were reunited with their family. "With all the love and attention, it was obvious that the rescue dogs were especially happy to be home again with their human buddy. Cody and Play's new home included indoor dog runs, a large play area, and a yard for outdoor fun. The girls were also treated to a brand-new car ride to celebrate the arrival of the two puppies, who will continue to get lots of attention and love from their new mom and dad.
